

ANDREW BOYD

CULTURE JAMMING 101: PRANKS WITH A PURPOSE

A slide-show presentation and hands-on workshop in the tactics & techniques of creative media actions.

ANDREW BOYD is an author, organizer, and grass-roots publicist. As Phil T. Rich, he was one of the driving forces behind Billionaires for Bush (or Gore) and the Million Billionaire March. He founded, and for several years directed, the arts and action program at United for a Fair Economy, which uses guerrilla theater, media stunts, and creative direct action to fight growing economic inequality. He is also the author of The Activist Cookbook, a source-book for creative direct action, and a contributor to several anthologies on recent social movements.

local info:

andrew's info:
718/768-4110

www.culturejamming101.com
andrew@culturejamming101.com